MAIZENA,

The food and luxury of the age without a single fault. One trial will convince the most skeptical. Makes Puddings, Cakes, Custards, Blanc Mange, &c without lightness, with few or no eggs, at a cost astonishing the most economical. A slight addition to ordinary wheat flour greatly improves Bread and Cake. It is also excellent for thickening sweet sauces, gravies for fish and meat, soups, &c. For Ice Cream nothing can compare with it. A little boiled in milk will produce fresh cream for coffee, chocolate, tea, &c.

Put up in one pound packages, with directions.

A most delicious article of food for children and invalids of all ages. For sale by Grocers and Druggists everywhere.

[Evening Despatches to the Times.]

From Vicksburg—Statements of Prisoners and Deserters—Two Stories of Rebel Papers—Joe Johnston Trying to Cross the Big Black.

NEW YORK, 11th

Capt Hanson of the 26 Pennsylvania cavalry, left Fairfax Court House, June 9th, with a squadron of cavalry on a scouting expedition traversed the country through to Middleburg via Aldie, Upperville to Barbours and Warrenton. He captured eight prisoners and 15 horses.

Among the prisoners was the notorious spy Minor Thompson, who was captured not long since by another party and confined in jail at Fairfax Court House, from whence he escaped by bribing the guard with 50 dollars. This is an important capture.

The Tribune's Washington despatch says, recent semi official telegrams from Vicksburg state that rebel deserters and prisoners named yesterday as the last day to which it was possible for the rebels in the place to hold out.

Seven men were arrested at Washington today as spies. They are in the custody of Col. Baker.

Brig Gen Leslie yesterday received authority from the War Department to raise a brigade of two regiments of artillery, in the place of the 3d New York Artillery, recently mustered out of service from Gen Banks's department. Gen Leslie will return to New York and commence recruiting immediately. He expects to have his brigade in the field in four weeks.

Among the casualties in the recent cavalry fight are, Thomas J Worthey, 1st Maine cavalry, wounded.

NEW YORK, 11th

The Herald publishes a long letter from Gen Fremont to the Secretary of War, going to prove that Gen Butler does not rank him, as the latter was appointed Major General on the 16th of May, 1861, while Gen McClellan and General Fremont were appointed on the 14th of the same month.

The Tribune's army despatch says a Richmond paper of the 7th not reports all quiet at Vicksburg, and gives a Mobile despatch of the 4th inst to the effect that we have been repulsed at Port Hudson, with the loss of an arm to Gen Banks. Our loss in the late Vicksburg fight is given at 40,000, and the Confederate loss at 4000.

[Modest for a rebel statement.]

NEW YORK 11th

A Springfield, Illinois, despatch to the World dated the 10th, says the Governor this morning issued a proclamation proroguing the legislature until 1866. The Republicans left the halls and thereby broke up a quorum in each house, but the Democrats refused to recognize the prorogation and continued the session.

The Democrat in the afternoon, judging themselves powerless to do any further business, entered a protest upon the record, reciting the facts and arraigning the Governor for his usurpation and unconstitutional acts, and informally left their seats, not recognizing an adjournment, a revolutionary breaking up of the legislature.

Gen Johnston is still reported to be on the Big Black, endeavoring to prose below the bridge with an army of 20,000 men. Gen Osterhaus was watching his movements, with a sufficient force to "checkmate any demonstration he may make.

A rumor was in circulation that Pemberton had requested Gen Grant to permit women and children to pass through his lines.

Over 300 head of cattle and mules had been turned loose on account of the scarcity of forage.

CHICAGO, 11th

A special Memphis dispatch, dated the 8th, says the steamer Louisiana, from Young's Point at 5 o'clock on Friday evening, brings the following:

General Kimball with 3000 men, was sent up the Yazoo river to Satartia, 30 miles below Yazoo City. He arrived there on the 4th, and learned that a rebel force under General Wirt Adams was not far off, and immediately marched to meet him.

At 10 o'clock on the morning of Thursday, he came up with the pickets of the enemy. A brisk fight ensued, which lasted 30 minutes, when the enemy gave way and a total route ensued. Our loss was 1 killed and 7 wounded. We captured 100 prisoners. The enemy's loss in killed and wounded was considerable. The rebels were 2000 strong.

MATRIMONIAL DISPUTES IN SWITZERLAND. In Berne they have a novel mode of dealing with matrimonial disputants. Divorces were freely granted, says Bishop Horne, but first the applicant had to go through a curious test. A small room was prepared in which the husband and wife were put—the door being then closed, to remain so for six weeks, except it should be set in motion at the urgent and united request of the wedded pair. There were in the room one plate, one spoon, a knife of all the requisites, and the solitary bed was of such dimensions that, if they chose to use it, either they must needs lie very close. Of only thing said only one, there was a duplicate, and that was a treatise on the duties of husbands and wives toward each other. No visitor was permitted to go near them, and they had only a glimpse at intervals of the grim face of the jailor, as he pushed their food through a hole in the door. The bishop states that the test was attended with the most wholesome results. In most cases the parties were excellent friends in a few days; and very few could stand out for more than a fortnight. Another very gratifying circumstance was, that they had scarcely to record a case in which a second application was made by persons who had already gone through the ordeal.

COLONEL THORP. Col. Thorpe, from General Banks' department, states that Gen Gillmore's negro brigade is more than filled, and the new country just opened by Gen Banks' campaign will furnish two or three divisions of negroes in response to Gen Banks' call for a corps d'Afrique. There is no doubt that the rebels are engaged in raising negro regiments, as it is only from such material they can now, in the extreme southern States, recruit the ranks. The negroes are not backward in adopting a uniform, which is their death warrant if taken by the rebels.

Jeff Davis' congressman was recently introduced to the rebel congressmen, Hanes, at a party in London. The high blooded Virginian looked for a moment as if he would have insulted the negro, but with the thoughts of the delicate nature of his diplomatic mission, and the terrible some prejudices of Englishmen, he managed to extend his hand, drop his eye supercilliously, and say, "Ah! oh, indeed," and walked on. Thus met the rebel and the contraband, equal for once.

From the Chicago Tribune

The Mask Off.

The arrest of Vallandigham has done one useful thing, it has stripped the mask off the Copperheads, and revealed to the country their real principles and intentions. They have asserted many million times that they were not opposed to the prosecution of the war, but wanted the rebellion put down, that what they objected to, was the mode in which it was conducted. They wanted it waged by conservative generals on conservative principles, lest the Constitution might be violated. Their great solicitude has been to preserve that instrument from injury! Behind this prospect the copperheads intrenched themselves, and opened their batteries upon the rear of the Union army.—Under the lying pretence of regard for the Constitution they have unceasingly assailed the defenders of the Union and the Constitution. But the arrest of Vallandigham has turned their position and exposed their concealed purpose to public view. The passionate sympathy they exhibit for the treason shriker, the loud cries raised in his behalf, the fierce threats they hurled at the Government, all show that their leader, their embodiment, their representative man has been touched. The Queen Bee of the copperhead hive has been arrested, and sent south to his friends. This has stirred up the whole nest, and they are buzzing around as spitefully as so many wasps.

Vallandigham took sides with the rebels before the war began. He was in full sympathy with them when they seceded, and justified them in going out of the Union. When the rebels made war upon the Government, seized the public property, and bombarded and captured Fort Sumter, he opened not his mouth in reprehension, but apologized for their deeds. He voted against every bill introduced into Congress to raise money and men for the public defence. He voted against pay and pension to the soldiers. He votes and spoke against raising soldiers or building gunboats. He strenuously opposed every measure of Congress having for its object the salvation of the Union or the suppression of the rebellion. From first to last he has been on the side of the rebels and against his country, and was finally arrested by the military for making seditious harangues, the intention of which was to fight the torch of civil war in Ohio and the West, for the benefit of the rebels. There is no mistaking or disputing Vallandigham's position. He boldly avowed his hostility to the Government, and to the prosecution of the war.

OPERATIONS AT VICKSBURG. A special correspondent of the New York Times writes from the rear of Vicksburg, 28th ult, as follows:

The rebels are indefatigable in their efforts to strengthen their works. Every morning reveals the creation of a new work, the repairing of an old one, or the planting of batteries in new position. Yesterday morning they astonished our forces on the right by opening on them with two new guns—one a smooth sixty-four and the other a rifled thirty-two pounder. In fact, from appearances, they are as busy digging within as we are without, the morning roar of a new gun from our side is usually answered with demonic by some night-gown battery on theirs, and, in short, when we move, they countermove, we mine, and they countermine, and if we succeed in blowing up or carrying their first line of works, we shall probably find another immediately in its rear.

Vicksburg must be an unpleasantly warm place at present. Eight mortar boats, protected effectually by the high banks of the river, are hurling tons of their massive projectiles into the very heart of the city, all around the rear, from the Mississippi above to the Mississippi below, our battery crews are searching every inch of the devoted place with shell, schrapnel and canister. A dense smoke lies like a pall over the city, in which can be seen every instant the heroic flash of bursting shells, and heard the whizzing rush of deadly projectiles. With such sights, sounds, surroundings, Vicksburg is at present as undesirable a residence as can be selected. Deserters assure us that the stench arising from animals killed by our shells is horrible in the extreme; that the whole army is on miserable half rations, and only induced to continue the defence with the hope of relief from beyond. It is impossible to say how long that hope will sustain them, but it is fair to presume that within the next fortnight they will be forced to succumb to starvation unless relieved.

GOOD AND TRUE LANGUAGE. Before leaving New York for England, Henry Ward Beecher published a parting word to his readers, in which he thus alludes to the national troubles:

I am hopeful and confident of the ultimate results of the struggle. As the Israelites could not enter the promised land until they had buried in the wilderness all who had been reared to manhood in Egypt, so, we think it is not unlikely that the nation will be held in conflict until that whole race of public men have passed who received their habits and principles during the poisonous era of slave domination and imbecile compromises. We fear that men in power are more anxious for peace than for national health.

The statesmen who are to save this country are to be irreconcilable haters of slavery, and enthusiasts for liberty. It is of no use to attempt to carry forward under our government slavery and liberty. The time has passed.—The experiment has been tried. The country has everything to fear from the influence of men who have failed to see the meaning of peace by administering to the country that very same poison which has already blotched the country all over with the fiery pimples of war. The future of America must be Liberty! To that we must come.

Our hope, under God, is in the intelligent common people.

The patience, wisdom, courage and determination of the common people will bring this war to a good issue, and will give us a peace in which liberty shall be more popular than slavery, and work be honorable.

THE GUNBOAT ISAAC SMITH DESTROYED. A letter to the Herald from the blockading fleet off Charleston, says it has been ascertained almost to a certainty that the cotton-laden steamer that was sunk in the North Channel on the night of the 29th ult., was the gunboat Isaac Smith, taken from us in Stono Inlet in January last, and called the "Stono" by the rebels. The Isaac Smith did not suit the rebels for a war vessel, and she was loaded with 850 bales of cotton and had arrived for Nassau when she was discovered and fired into by the gunboat Housatonic.

Another evidence of the prosperity of the country, in spite of the war, is that the amount of the pork, bacon, and lard exported this year is sixty four and a half millions of pounds greater than the exports of the year before. This total amount of the above articles exported was two hundred and sixty two millions of pounds.

INCIDENTS OF THE SIEGE OF VICKSBURG. A letter of the 25th May (the seventh day of the siege) says—a truce of two hours being allowed for burying the dead—

In the conversation held with rebels this evening, they represented that there was great suffering in Vicksburg, particularly for water. Nearly all the wells were dry, and they were forced to go to the river under fire of the gunboats. One of the shells from the mortars had exploded in the office of the Vicksburg Sun, and burned it to the ground. The Wing office was accidentally burned several weeks since, so that now the city is destitute of news. Some of the soldiers offered fifteen dollars for a copy of the Tribune or Times.

On the 28th he writes:

During last night a deserter—a German—came into our lines, a gunsmith, belonging to one of the rebel batteries, and perfectly familiar with the rebel powder magazines. To-day he has had the direction of one of the guns of Captain Klaus's battery, and has made some excellent shots, exploding no less than three magazines and caissons. Reports reach us that the enemy had constructed a bridge across the Big Black, just above Grand Gulf, with a view to furnish an avenue of escape to the garrison whenever they should succeed in cutting their way out. The officers of the gunboats heard of it, and forthwith compassed its destruction.

THE FIGHT AT PORT HUDSON. The following are extracts of a letter from a Bangor Officer who was at the battle near Port Hudson:

CAPTAIN GARNSEY.

Colonel Paine of the 3d Louisiana, took his company and marched by the flank through the dense woods and briars, the rebel artillery shelling him all the time. Several of his men were killed and more wounded, when suddenly the regiment met the rebel infantry posted behind a fence on the left of their battery. The rebels opened immediately, wounding Lieutenant Colonel Everett and killing several others. The woods and blackberry bushes were so thick at this place that a line of battle could not be formed, so Captain Garnsey's and Lucas's companies were thrown out to the front until the regiment could be got in a line. Captain Garnsey charged with his company through the woods, fighting splendidly, and the regiment coming up shortly after, the rebels broke. Captain Garnsey behaved splendidly. Colonel Paine praised him to me very much. He was hit by a spent piece of shell, but was not much injured. He lost nearly half his company in the fight.

CAPTAIN HUBBARD.

After this battle and the junction of Banks's army corps with Augur's, the writer says—"I stopped at the headquarters of the Reserve Brigade, and saw Captain Hubbard. He was lying on the ground when I came up. He was delighted to see me. He looked just the same as ever, and we sat on the ground and talked about old times until it was time for me to go. As I was about to go, he said, 'We are to assault the works to-morrow, and if we get into Port Hudson alive, I want to have a long talk with you, B——.' I looked back once or twice, as I rode away, and saw him standing in the moonlight watching me. He waved his hand to me, and that was the last I ever saw of him alive. The next night, after the fighting in our division was over, I rode over and saw his dead body lying in moonlight—a bullet had passed through his brain. (Our long talk will not be in Port Hudson.) He fell in the front of the fight, leading on a regiment to recover the colors of a regiment which had lost them. The colors were retaken, but one of the handsomest bravest and best gentlemen of our army died for them. Truly he died for the flag."

"Son of Samuel Garnsey, Esq., of this city, Son of Ex-Gov Hubbard of Hallowell.

A CASE OF HYDROPHOBIA CURED. Dr Louis Bauer, the Health Officer of Williamsburg, L I, has just succeeded in effecting a cure in a case of fully developed hydrophobia. Oscar Burch, a shipwright, residing in Flushing Avenue, was bitten by a dog, and in 48 hours afterward alarming symptoms gradually developed themselves. The police had to be called in to hold the poor man down. Doctors were summoned and the Health Officer was called in, who, on Monday morning, the 18th inst, took entire charge of the case, and actuated by the theory that the poison had expended its virulence upon the spinal cord, directed his attention to it. Without administering a grain of medicine, he ordered a thorough (wet) sponging to the posterior part of the head and along the spine, following it up with ice applications to the same extent. The patient, of course, had to lie on his stomach, and was well secured by mechanical constraint during this treatment, which was continued unabated, without intermission, for three successive days and nights. The patient was protected against any return of paroxysm. His pulse and breathing became quiet, the pains gradually left him, and isolated muscular twitchings became likewise extinct. Since Saturday, no untoward symptom has disturbed the steady progress of recovery, and on Wednesday the patient was discharged from medical treatment, apparently in the best state of health.

LOYAL LEAGUE. A Loyal League was organized in this town May 20th, which now consists of eighty members.

The basis of the organization is unconditional support of all the measures of the government for the suppression of the rebellion.

The officers of the League are Hazen Hill President, Wm J Copp and John Allen, D G Cook, Vice Presidents, Daniel Stickney, Corresponding Secretary; Thomas Howe, Recording Secretary; Winslow Hall, Treasurer. Weekly meetings are holden Friday evenings to which all are invited to attend.—Pioneer

Union State Convention.

The citizens of Maine who are unconditionally loyal to the Government of the United States, and who unconditionally support all its measures for the suppression of the rebellion, and who are resolved to spare no endeavor to maintain our National Union, both in principal and territorial boundary, are invited to send Delegates to a Convention to be held in the city of BANGOR,

On Wednesday, the 1st Day of July Next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor to be supported by the Union Men of Maine at the next election.

Each city, town, and plantation is entitled to send one delegate, and an additional delegate for every five hundred inhabitants. A fraction of three hundred entitles a town to an additional delegate.

THE REBEL OFFERS OF SURRENDER.—It has been stated that both at Vicksburg and Port Hudson, the rebel commanders offered to surrender, if allowed to march their men out with their arms. The offers were properly refused, although many persons have thought they ought to have been accepted. By accepting them we should, to be sure, have gained possession of two highly important and now very strongly entrenched points—but the enemy's army—his force with which to seize and fortify other points, would have been saved to him, and the step gained by us much less important in its results to us. With the strong probability—almost certainty—that we should be able to reduce both garrisons to an unconditional surrender, with all their arms and munitions, Generals Grant and Banks were in our opinion amply justified in declining the partial offer of the rebel Generals. As the Boston Journal says, the general principle that the war, in order to insure final success, must be waged against the rebel armies, and not for the occupation of territory, cannot be too strongly impressed upon the loyal masses. Let us go over any amount of ground, but leave the rebel armies intact, and nothing substantial will be accomplished towards putting down the rebellion. But when we destroy or disarm the rebel armies, the territory falls to us as a matter of course, and the rebellion is over. Altho' the opening of the Mississippi is of exceptional and vast importance, as compared with the occupation of any other part of the rebel domain, still it is the rebel armed force which makes all the difficulty there, and the only security is to bring it about that the rebels can never hereafter afford to keep an adequate force there.

Now the great rebel want is of troops, as is shown by the slowness with which Johnston gathers his recruits. But if Grant had simply released the 15,000 men at Vicksburg, and Banks the 10,000 at Port Hudson, there would have been 25,000 effectives ready for renewing service in the rebel army at once. But if, on the other hand, these garrisons are regularly captured, 25,000 men will be wiped out of the rebel army for the summer campaign, and the Mississippi, in consequence, will be so opened that it it will stay open without any difficulty. Surely that is a result worth making considerable sacrifice to obtain.

The policy of sending disloyal persons beyond the lines, has revolutionary authority. In 1778, the darkest period of the Revolution, when thousands were for making peace with Great Britain, just as thousands now are for making peace with rebellion, the Legislature of New York passed a bill directed against those who "ungratefully and insidiously, by artful misrepresentations and a subtle dissemination of doctrines, fears and apprehensions, false in themselves and injurious to the American cause, seduced certain weak minded persons from the duty they owe to their country," as follows—

Be it enacted, &c. 1. That all such men be required to take an oath of allegiance, which was prescribed in the act.

2. That if they refuse to take the oath, they shall be removed to within the enemy's lines; and—

3. That if they return afterward, they shall be adjudged guilty of misprison of treason.

Hundreds of tories were sent out of the State and across the lines and never allowed to return. Their property was confiscated and they were banished, as public enemies of liberty and the Union.

But the wisdom of the fathers is but foolishness in the eyes of the modern "democracy." According to their doctrine, a man may talk and publish treason all his life—incite soldiers to desert and citizens to resist the draft—oppose the Government, and urge the people by all sorts of lies and misrepresentations to rise up in actual rebellion here at home—and still they are no actual traitors, and ought not to be treated as such. The speeches of Vallandigham were calculated to produce every one of the above results; and yet because this traitor at heart was summarily arrested and sent beyond our lines, he is taken up and made a political martyr of by the "democracy." Shame upon men who will thus suffer their partisan hostility to the administration, and their eager desire for a political victory to run away with their patriotism and good sense.

A UNION COUNTY CONVENTION.—The Union County Committee of Waldo county organized at Belfast on Saturday last, as we learn from the Age of that city—electing Hiram E. Pierce of Belfast, Chairman, and Timothy B. Grant of Prospect, Secretary. They voted to call a County Nominating Convention at Belfast on the 22d of August. The Age says that the members of the Committee represented the sentiment of the loyal men of the county as being unfavorable to calling a Republican County Convention this year, and strongly in favor of a Union County Convention upon the same platform of the call for a State Convention, and also in favor of a substitution of a Union organization, believing that now is a time when true men, by whatever name they may choose to call themselves, should rally together without being embarrassed by past party names, platforms or organization.

CORRECTION.—A letter from Augusta last evening assures us that the telegraph was in error in stating that the person executed at Franklin was a brother of Gen. Seth Williams. Gen. Williams is a son of Daniel Williams, Esq., of Augusta, and has but one brother, and he is a merchant in Iowa. Probably the whole story of his name was a fabrication, invented to prevent immediate execution.

THE LATEST VICTIMS OF THE REBEL PIRATES.—The steamship Africa, at Halifax from Liverpool, brings information of the capture of the following American ships by the rebel pirate Alabama:

Ship Sea Lark, Capt. Peck, from Boston, (March 30) for San Francisco. She was a fine ship of 978 tons, rated A 1½, built at Tremont, Me., in 1852, and was owned in Boston, by S. G. Reed and E. M. Robinson. She had an assorted cargo of 1866 tons, owned by 114 different shippers. The freight money amounted to $24,000, on which was a war risk of $12,000. The vessel was fully covered by a war risk.

Ship Dorcas Prince, Capt. Melcher, which sailed from New York March 18, for Shanghae. She was owned by N. P. Blanchard, of Yarmouth, Me.; was 699 tons, rated A 2, and was built at Yarmouth in 1850. Her cargo consisted of coal.

Barque Union Jack, Captain Weaver, from New York March 30, for Shanghae. This was a new vessel of 482 tons belonging in Boston, and was owned by Captain Weaver and others. She had a cargo of coal.

The whaling barque Nye, of New Bedford, Captain Barker, was an old vessel of 211 tons, but thoroughly built and in fine condition. The Mercury says: "She sailed on a whaling voyage to the Atlantic Ocean, Oct. 2, 1860, and was last reported, April 16, 1863, with 350 sperm and 150 barrels whale oil on board. We presume that she was well on her way, some insurance upon her catchings having been effected within a few days.

FARE REFUND.—Within a few weeks nearly all Western lines have made a combination for the purpose of abolishing agencies and increasing the rates of fare to points West and South. This combination the Grand Trunk Railway refuses to enter into, and instead of increasing fares have promptly reduced them, so that a passenger can save the handsome sum of four dollars and eighty cents by patronizing the Grand Trunk, and be carried to place of destination in less time than by any other route.—Fare to Detroit only $14. From Detroit tickets can be purchased at usual through rates.

If passengers prefer to go from Port Sarnia to Milwaukie and Chicago, by steamer, they will find elegant boats in readiness to convey them or one of the pleasantest routes in the country, touching at Mackinaw and other Lake ports.—From Milwaukie or Chicago they can purchase tickets by rail at through rates. By this route the fare from Portland to Chicago will be only eighteen dollars, including meals and state-room on boats.

Eating houses and principal hotels on the road, take American money at par, and no increase of price.

☞ Harrington, the renowned Ventriloquist, and the best in this country, gives his first entertainment in this city the present season, this evening. To-morrow (Saturday) afternoon, there will be an entertainment especially for children and families, at a reduced price of admission. See advertisement.

☞ A large quantity of army clothing and equipments arrived here last evening in the steamer Harvest Moon, consigned to Provost Marshal Low. About forty cases of muskets also arrived, as we are informed, consigned to Mr. Maxwell, the keeper of the arsenal.

☞ We learn that Mr. Warren W. Rice of Hampden, who was appointed Warden of the State Prison some time previous to the lamentable murder of Mr. Tinker, the former Warden, has decided to accept the appointment, and will enter upon the duties of the position next week.

☞ The statement which came by telegraph that one of the rebel spies recently hung in Tennessee was a brother of General Seth Williams, and consequently a son of Daniel Williams, Esq., of Augusta, was false, as Mr. Williams had no son of that name.

☞ We have some samples of immensely long cucumbers raised by Mr. Frank Casey, at the green house of S. J. Murphy, Esq. They beat all that we ever saw at this early stage of the season. One that we measured stretched out seventeen inches, and then we stopped measuring.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—The Augusta says that a son of Mr. Osgood French of Norridgewock, a lad about 14 years old, was almost instantly killed on Saturday last by the accidental discharge of a gun. He with some other boys had a loaded gun, and while one was passing it to another it went off, and another victim added to the long list of lives sacrificed by the careless handling of fire arms. When will young people learn wisdom in this respect. Every year we have to record many such a listing calamities.

☞ The receipts on the Grand Trunk Railway for the week ending May 30, were $64,061 20
Corresponding week last year, 62,490 23

Increase, $21,170 97

FLAG OF THE 11TH MAINE.—The flag of the 11th Maine, which it is claimed, had been borne nearer Richmond than any other Federal flag, has not been received by the Adjutant General at Augusta. It was literally torn in tatters at Fair Oaks.

☞ The La Crosse (Wis.) Democrat says the granaries of Minnesota and northwestern Wisconsin are apparently inexhaustible, judging by the heavy loads the steamers are constantly landing at the depot of the La Crosse and Milwaukie Railroad.

☞ The Boston Post allows that Gen. Banks has proved himself one of the best Generals in the field.

☞ They have a cheerful horse railroad at Hartford. One terminus is at the State Prison and the other at the cemetery. One would prefer to be a way passenger.

☞ The Governor of Ohio has authorized a battalion to be formed of rebel prisoners at camp Chase, in that State, who take the oath of allegiance. Forty-five joined on Thursday last.

☞ A marriage is noticed in the Duxbury (Mass.) Times, in which the happy pair is unusually explicit in stating their position. They say—"No cards, no reception, no wedding."

☞ Prof. Andrews states from experience, that men will lie in snow, on wet ground, or under open sheds, and do well; while in close hospitals they die with injuries around; so that the army surgeon should see that he gets fresh air for his men in preference to food, warmth, or shelter, if all cannot be had.

LUMBER BUSINESS.—The lumber business is quite brisk in this city. The demand for long lumber is greater now than it has been for several years past. The home demand for building purposes is quite active.—Portland Courier.

☞ The 44th Massachusetts Regiment arrived in Boston on Wednesday, and had a magnificent reception.

☞ A confederate paper dollar is worth a shilling in gold—or was last week.

☞ The Chickeridge have made in all 25,000 pianos. At an average of $350 each they have been sold for $8,750,000.

☞ A large quantity of clothing and commissary stores arrived at the Provost Marshal's office in Belfast, Thursday, per steamer Harvest Moon.

☞ The Belfast Journal learns from Colonel Hersey of the 28th Maine, who arrived in Belfast on steamer Katahdin on Thursday, that his regiment was not in the late battle at Port Hudson.

THE GOLDEN FLEECE OUTDONE.—A friend at Dover writes: A fleece recently taken from a year old lamb belonging to Jewett W. Gerry, Esq., of Dover, weighed nine pounds and ten ounces. We think this is the heaviest fleece of the season.

☞ Gold has been on the decline for some days with now and then a spasmodic attempt to recover lost ground. It has been as low as 1,30. The news of the capture of Vicksburg would give it another tumble.

☞ Some copperheads in Morrow county, Ohio, having resisted the enrolling officers, several arrests have been made, and the offenders handed over to the proper authorities for examination. Those who are resisting the enrolment in Pennsylvania, will probably find themselves in the same fix.

☞ State Conventions will be held in the following States during the present month, viz:—By the Democrats in Ohio on the 11th; by the Democrats in Pennsylvania and in Illinois, and by the Union men in Ohio on the 17th; and by the Democrats in Vermont on the 26th. A State Convention on the subject of emancipation, called by Governor Gamble, will meet in Missouri on the 15th.

The Maine Union Convention comes off on the 1st of July, and the "Democratic" on the 18th of August.

☞ Several young men were arrested in Baltimore on Friday charged with organizing a company to join the rebel army. Some of them are sons of prominent citizens.

Large quantities of army clothing have been received in Augusta during the past week or two.

☞ The Republican papers endeavor to make it appear that the niggers did all the fighting at Port Hudson, quite a compliment to our brave white brethren who fought there. We have always thought that a white man was as good as a nigger, if he behaved as well, but it seems not.—Augusta Age.

[The exception is well put in. There are a good many white men in this State who are not half as good as the niggers have proved themselves to be—and the editor of the Age may place himself decidedly in that category.]

☞ Trains now run on the Blackfield Branch railroad regularly, and as far as the town of Sumner, seven miles from Buckfield, twice a week. Several engineers are now surveying and locating a continuation of the road as far as Canton, seven miles further. A new turn table is being built at Mechanic Falls for the company. Parties in Massachusetts claim to furnish the funds for the prosecution of this work, as we learn from the Press.

A BEAR STORY.—The Farmer has an account of an adventure with a bear, and the discovery of a small quantity of silver in an hitherto unknown cave, on Old Bluff, a rough mountain situated in Concord. When on an excursion with two companions, our correspondent stirred up a bear; bear retreated to a cave and the men fastened him in by placing large stones against the entrance, while they went after more aid; reinforcements coming, they attacked Bruin, who fastened his claws rather unceremoniously upon Jack and made off with him; coming to a tree Jack caught hold of it and Bruin went on with Jack's coat, tumbling over a steep ledge, and was killed by the fall. After this the man returned to the cave and found therein an iron chest in which was about twenty dollars in silver coins.

PUTTING IN THE SEED.—Mr. Francis Thibodeau of Grand Isle, has sowed this spring 122 bushels of grain, and Mr. Joseph Nelson of Fort Kent 76 bushels. Others in that vicinity have sowed a large breadth of land.—Pioneer.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.
Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Quinsy, and the numerous and well nigh dangerous diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, prevail, in our changeable climate, at all seasons of the year: few are fortunate enough to escape their baneful influence. How important then to have at hand a certain antidote to all these complaints.—Experience proves that this estimable Wistar's Balsam, to an extent not found in any other remedy; however severe the suffering, the application of this soothing, healing and wonderful Balsam at once vanquishes the disease and restores the sufferer to wonted health.
From a Highly Respectable Apothecary in Bangor.
BANGOR, Oct. 4, 1860.
Messrs S. W. Fowle & Co—Please send me a few dozen of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. The demand for this excellent preparation for diseases of the Throat and Lungs, renders it necessary that I should purchase a considerable quantity of it. It has an enviable reputation which it has acquired upon its own merits alone. My customers assure me of their unlimited confidence in the medicine; and I consider it without a superior in the best of similar specifics. The fact of its having been before the public so long, and the demand still continuing, is proof positive of its appreciation by the afflicted portion of mankind. Respectfully yours,

ERADICATING DISEASE.
The effect of this medicine is most wonderful—it acts directly upon the bowels and blood, by removing all obstructions from the internal organs, stimulating them into healthy action, renovating the fountains of life, purifying the blood, cleansing it from all humors, and causing it to course sweetly through every part of the body, restoring the invalid to health and usefulness. They cure and eradicate from the system, Liver Complaint, that mainwheel of so many diseases; Jaundice in its worst forms, all Bilious Diseases and Foul Stomach, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, all kinds of Humors, and every disease arising from Indigestion, Headache, Dizziness, Piles, Heartburn, Weakness, Pains in the Side and Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, and a torpid or diseased Liver, a disordered Stomach, or bad Blood, to which all are more or less subject in Spring and Summer.
Many persons have been cured by this medicine than by all other Bitters in the world. It is highly recommended by Physicians everywhere. Try it and you will never regret it.
Only 37 and 50 cents per Bottle. Sold by Dealers in Medicine everywhere. Orders addressed to GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., 38 Hanover st., Boston, will receive prompt attention.

LARGE SALE
REAL ESTATE
On Thomas' Hill,
AT AUCTION!
J. B. FOSTER, Auctioneer.
On Wednesday, July 15th, 1863,
At 3 o'clock P. M., on the premises,
I SHALL SELL all the Lots now unsold, on the Southerly side of James Street (as per Plan of Lots made for J. W. Low, Esq., and recorded in the Penobscot Registry of Deeds, book 8, page 77)—beginning with Lot No. 1, adjoining the residence of Mrs. Bailey, on Union Street.
Lots No. 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5, front on James Street, and run back 100 feet, to an alley 16 feet wide. Lot No. 1, is 100 feet on James by 100 feet on Union St. Lots 2, 3, 4, and 5, are 77 by 100 feet. Lots 6, 7, 10, 11, 12, and 13, are on the Easterly side of Thomas Street—and all but No. 13, are 75 by 100 feet. No. 13, has a front of about 200 feet on James Street—and on Ohio Street about 300 feet, and adjoins the premises of Horatio Pitcher, Esq.
To a resident of the city, these Lots need no commendation. The Stranger has only to examine, to admire them. There is no locality in the city that offers so many attractions for residences as Thomas' Hill. Already, two of the most elegant mansions in the city have been erected there, and it cannot be long before all the vacant Lots will be taken up and occupied. These Lots combine the advantage of convenient proximity to the city with the retirancy of the country. The view from Thomas' Hill is beautiful and grand beyond description.
This sale offers a rare opportunity to any one desirous of securing a desirable location for building; and to the speculator who wants to invest where he can be safe in a profit.
The sale will be positive. One-quarter of the purchase money to be paid down; the balance on any time to suit the convenience of the purchaser—not exceeding four years—with interest.
A Plan of the Lots can be seen, by calling upon the Auctioneer, or upon J. W. LOW.

NEWBERN N C 9th.

The United States steamer Albany leaves today for New York

The concurrent testimony of deserters leaves no doubt that the long smouldering fires of revolution are breaking out in the interior of North Carolina, and that the disaffection has reached a point far beyond even the sanguine estimate set of the journals of the State

Several thousand refugees from conscription have been for weeks entrenched in the mountains with artillery, successfully defying the Confederate authorities

The Raleigh Standard bitterly complains the while the rebel conscription not has not been enforced in Georgia and Mississippi, North Carolina has been raked as with a fine-tooth comb

It appears (says the Standard) that in the battle of Chancellorsville 29 North Carolina regiments were placed in front to resist General Hooker s advance, sustaining an immense loss, while the South Carolina and Virginia troops were kept in the back ground This massacre of North Carolina troops is boldly and freely denounced and the Confederacy s charged with gross injustice and bad faith The numerous and studied indignities put upon the State and her people are keenly resented

In order to secure concert of action, and to avoid all future conflicts of authorities necessarily produced by the appointment of a civilian, it is proposed to make Gen Wild, of the African brigade Military Governor of North Carolina He possesses executive ability of a high order and as Gen Foster remarks is a gallant and accomplished soldier, and a gentleman, and has already won great popularity in the department, and his appointment will be universally acceptable

HARRISBURG, Pa, 11th

The War Department has created a new military district to provide for the defence of Pennsylvania The Western District designated as the Department of the Monongahela embraces the territory west of Johnstown and Laurel Ridge, Major General Brooks is commanded, headquarters at Pittsburg

The Eastern District, embracing the balance of the State, is under command of Major General Couch headquarters at Chambersburg

Major General has full authority to organize an army corps, consisting of infantry, cavalry and artillery

Harrisburg will be the point for troops to assemble and organize

General orders from General Couch and a proclamation from Governor Curtin, will be issued to morrow, calling upon the people of the State to organize immediately for the State defence.

The time for action has arrived to save our State from invasion by rebel forces.

WASHINGTON, 11th

Affairs along the front of the army of the Potomac remains the same as before the last advance, the enemy as well as our own troops maintaining the original lines before the town Occasionally a signal gun is heard and some scattering shots from the skirmishers.

Intelligence from Carolina county, Va, shows that the rebels have not a strong force there.—There are several picket guards at the fords and landings and one at Bowling Green, the county seat and on one of the railroads These comprise their entire strength

Ten days ago $26 000 in Confederate and Virginia State bonds were seized near Bowling Green in transit for the North

The week this side of the Rappahannock is quiet, and none of the enemy's forces is known to be there

WASHINGTON 11th

Paroled prisoners to the number of 4000 are being paid off at Camp Convalescent.

A party consisting of Secretary Chase, Senator Sherman and several others, including ladies, returned from a visit to the army of the Potomac yesterday

Col Evans of the the 2d Cal. regiment in a despatch dated Camp Douglas, Utah Territory, April 27th while officially communicating a splendid victory over the Indians, reported that the Mormons stood around the street corners in the town of Pleasant Grove, on the tops of houses and hay stacks complacently looking on and apparently well pleased at the prospects of a gentile soldiers being murdered by from 75 to 1000 Indians

He adds Comment is unnecessary for he has to say that Lieut Honyman believes and thinks he has prima facie evidence of facts upon which to found his belief that the savages were informed by the Mormons of his presence in the town, with only five men, as they supposed a wagon load of provisions, bound for Fort Bridger, and that it was an arrangement between some of the Mormons and Indians to murder his little party, take the property and divide the spoils

WASHINGTON, 11th.

The following was received to-day at the Headquarters of the army—

POOLESVILLE, Md , 11th.

The rebel cavalry came across the river his morning at daybreak, about 250 strong They dashed rapidly up the tow path driving in our patrol and attacked Company L of the 6th Michigan cavalry, who were on picket duty at Seneca

Our forces gradually fell back pursued by the enemy, to within five miles of Poolesville

The enemy then retreated to Seneca, burned the camp of the Michigan company returned down the tow path and recrossed the river

We lost four men killed and one very badly wounded

The enemy left on the field one Lieutenant and one man killed

WASHINGTON, 11th

Walter S Coe, the commissioner under the fugitive slave law, today revealed seven runaway slaves—two of them children—from Maryland, to their claimants An affidavit of loyalty of the claimants had been made

One hundred and seventy-one persons of war, including six commissioned officers, arrived here this afternoon They were captured at Beverly ford

FORTRESS MONROE, 11th

Gen Dix and staff left this morning for Williamsburg in steamer C W Thomas

Steamer Maple Leaf left for Fort Delaware to day She takes up a number of rebel officers

Steamer Peoria from New York for New Orleans, arrived to-day

PHILADELPHIA, 11th

The General Subscription Agent, reports the sale of $1,609,000 in 5-20's yesterday and $1,869,000 to day at various agencies.

In loyal cities and States the delivery of bonds are being made to May 20th, and every effort is making by the Treasury Department to increase the supply

PHILADELPHIA, 11th

The Union League intends to hold their fourth gaudy celebration in Independence Square, but as the democratic party hold their usual anniversary at that place on the morning and have a prior claim which they they refuse to yield, the celebration of the League will be held at Fairmount Park, to which place the procession will march

The Union League committee addressed a note to the democratic committee, a which they spoke of the national and unpatriotic character of the proposed celebration and of the fact that the President and other distinguished old ones would be present. To this the democratic committee replied that they have invited distinguished statesmen and patriots from other States to unite with them on the occasion and a cordial invitation to all who recognize freedom of speech, liberty of press, protection from arbitrary, oppression and vindictive arrests. The request to surrender the possession of Independence Square to Carpenters declined.

HARRISBURG 11th

Major General Couch and staff arrived this afternoon to consult with Governor Curtin in regard to the best means of defending our borders from anticipated invasion They will be joined tonight by Major Generals Schenck and Brooks. The most energetic measures are being devised and will be carried into effect at once It is thought the Governor will issue a proclamation tomorrow calling for the organization of minute men

NEW YORK, 11th

Rumors of disasters at Vicksburg and Port Hudson have been afloat today, but we are unable to obtain any information of the truth of them, and in the absence of which they may be set down as canards.

It is understood that advices from Vicksburg to the afternoon of the 6th, have reached Washington, but it is improbable that they contain anything of a very important or decisive character

The reported repulse of Gen Banks at Port Hudson, received from Mobile on the 4th via Richmond papers of the 6th inst, undoubtedly refers to the action of May 27th, the result of which is already known. It is quite unlikely that the rebels could have any information from Port Hudson a late date than our own advices

P S No intelligence of any disaster has been received at Washington up to noon today

NEW YORK, 11th

The Post says A committee of citizens who recently visited Washington to lay before the President a project for raising a division of 10,000 colored soldiers, report that he fully approved of the proposition only regretting the haste did not enable them to raise 100,000, and declaring himself ready as soon as a sufficient number could be raised to make them part of a command for General Fremont If it should appear expedient he would create a department expressly for Fremont, so as to enable him to carry out his combination of black and white regiments

A series of public meetings in the rural sections is to be held to put into the measure

NEW YORK, 11th

The Post s special Washington despatch says It has been asserted and that the rebel cavalry at Culpepper which was so severely handled in the late engagement, are now supported by large bodies of infantry and artillery

It is announced that the Government will give the enrollment act the most liberal construction possible

NEW YORK 11th

The Evansville, Ind , papers of the 9th say a steamer from Vicksburg, midnight of the 2d, had arrived there The steamer has been sent down with surgeons, nurses &c, and arrived at Young's Point on the 30th, where they were informed that no supplies or medical or surgical assistance was needed. The killed and wounded in the late battles did not exceed 1500, and that imperative orders had been received that no State or private sanitary boat with hospitals or men should reach the Yazoo or Chickasaw bayou, the base of supplies for General Grant s army However, they went to General Grant's head quarters and found the wounded in his army comfortably cared for in commodious hospitals 23 surgeons with nurses, were left to assist

NEW YORK, 11th

Steamer Louisiana from Liverpool 27th, arrived this evening News anticipated

Steamer Albany, from Newbern 8 h, arrived this evening

Among her passengers is Col Rickets of the 25th Massachusetts, and others

Capt Butler of the barque Whistling Wind, says he was boarded on the 6th, in lat 33 38, lon 31 24, by the rebel pirate Coquette After ordering all hands on board the Coquette, he Whistling Wind was set on fire and burned—The Whistling Wind had a cargo of coal for Government, and was bound from Philadelphia for New Orleans The Coquette is a barkentine rigged brig and was formerly the big Clarendon of Baltimore, which was captured by the pirate Florida, to which vessel she is a tender

The bark Almena when arrived to-day from Shanghae, has the captain, 1st mate, 2d mates, steward and one passenger, of the Whistling Wind, taken from the Bremen bark Argus, on board of which vessel they were placed by the pirate Coquette

NEW YORK, 11th.

The Tribune has a Vicksburg letter dated the 6th, which gives a hopeful view of the progress of the siege

The report of the repulse of a sortie against one of our mining parties on the night of the 3d demonstrated that Johnston cannot possibly get near enough to strike Grant without being extinguished

The garrison will soon be compelled by famine to surrender

The Richmond Whig of the 8th contains no news from Vicksburg, but has a long editorial on the desolation caused by the raids in Virginia

CINCINNATI, 11th,

Twelve hundred paroled soldiers passed thro' Louisville yesterday to join their regiments in Gen Rosecrans army

Hon John Brough addressed a large Union meeting at Marietta yesterday

The Democratic State Convention for nomination of State officers meets at Columbus to day

No later news has been received from Vicksburg

FORTRESS MONROE, 11th

The steamship Nova Scotian, from Liverpool 23th via Londonderry 29th, arrived here this afternoon News anticipated

NASHVILLE, Tenn , 11th

There was a skirmish at Triune yesterday—About 600 rebels dashed into the camp of the 6th Ky cavalry, but were repulsed The rebel commanda was shot from his horse and is reported dead Another rebel officer was also wounded Two federal soldiers were slightly wounded

SALT LAKE 10th.

Thirty mounted Indians attacked a coach three miles westward, to-day, and killed and scalped the driver and another employe. No passengers were aboard They opened the mail bags, stripped the coach, and ran off the stock Troops are after them

SAN FRANCISCO, 11th

The work at the new Idea quicksilver mine in Santa Cruz county is about to be resumed, which will materially increase the quicksilver product of the State. The mine has been closed for many months, on account of its title being in litigation

SAN FRANCISCO, 11th

Advices of the capture on the 2d of a California bound ship, and that the insurance against war risks has advanced to 10 per cent, are likely to cause a material advance in general merchandise

Business is dull

At the primary election of the Union party of San Francisco, held yesterday, delegates favorable to the non nation of S. P. Low for Governor were chosen & the Convention, making his choice almost certain.

Laws of the United States,

Passed at the Third Session of the Thirty Seventh Congress

[PUBLIC—No 51]

AN ACT to provide ways and means for the support of the Government

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled That the secretary of the Treasury be and he is hereby authorized to borrow from time to time, on the credit of the United States, a sum not exceeding twelve hundred millions of dollars for the next fiscal year, and to issue therefor coupon or registered bonds, payable at the place or places of the Government aforesaid, payable at such periods as may be fixed by the secretary, not less than ten nor more than forty years from date in coin, and of such denominations, not less than fifty dollars as he may deem advisable, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, payable on bonds not exceeding one hundred dollars, semi-annually, and on all other bonds semi-annually in coin and he may in his discretion dispose of such bonds at any time, upon such terms as he may deem advisable, for lawful money of the United States, or for any of the certificates of indebtedness or deposit that may at any time be issued, or for any of the treasury notes hereinafter authorized or which may be issued under the provisions of this act And all the bonds and treasury notes or United States notes issued under the provisions of this act shall be exempt from taxation by or under state, city or municipal authority Provided, That there shall be outstanding of bonds, treasury notes, and United States notes, at any time, issued under the provisions of this act, no greater amount at any time than the sum of nine hundred millions of dollars

Sec 2 And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is hereby authorized to issue, on the credit of the United States, four hundred millions of dollars in treasury notes payable at the pleasure of the United States, or at such time or times not exceeding three years from date as may be found most beneficial to the public interest, and bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, payable at periods expressed on the face of said treasury notes; and the interest on the said treasury notes and on certificates of indebtedness and deposit hereinafter mentioned shall be paid in lawful money The treasury notes that be issued shall be of such denominations as the secretary may direct, not less than ten dollars and may be disposed of on the best terms that can be obtained or may be paid to any creditor of the United States willing to receive them at par And all treasury notes may be made a legal tender to the same extent as United States notes, for their face value exclusive of interest, or they may be made exchangeable, upon such regulations prescribed by the secretary of the treasury, by the holder thereof at the treasury in the city of Washington, or at the office of any assistant treasurer or depositary, upon demand for the purpose, for United States notes equal in amount to the treasury notes offered for exchange, together with the interest accrued and due thereon at the date of interest payment next preceding such exchange And in lieu of any amount of such treasury notes they exchanged, or redeemed, or paid at maturity, the secretary may issue an equal amount of other treasury notes, and the treasury notes so exchanged, redeemed or paid, shall be cancelled and destroyed as the secretary may direct In order to secure certain and prompt exchanges of United States notes for treasury notes when required as above provided, the secretary shall have power to have United States notes to the amount of one hundred and fifty millions of dollars, which may be used if necessary for such exchanges, but no part of the United States notes authorized by this section shall be issued for a purpose to any other purpose than as a exchange, and whenever any such part shall have been issued and applied the same shall be replaced by a portion of the proceeds from the sale of Treasury notes or United States notes

Sec 3 And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is hereby authorized, if required by the exigence of the public service, for the payment of the army and navy, and other expenditures of the Government, to issue on the credit of the United States the sum of one hundred and fifty millions of dollars of United States notes including the amount of such notes heretofore authorized by the joint resolution approved January seventeen eighteen hundred and sixty three in such form as the may deem expedient, not bearing interest, payable on demand, and in such denominations, not less than one dollar, as the may prescribe which notes so issued shall be lawful money and a legal tender in payment of all debts public and private, within the United States, except for duties on imports and interest on the public debt, and any of the said notes, when returned to the treasury, may be reissued from time to time as the exigencies of the public service may require And in lieu of any such notes of any other United States notes, returned to the Treasury and cancelled or destroyed there may be issued United States notes of the United States notes and for other purposes, approved February twenty five, eighteen hundred and sixty two, and of the act to authorize an additional issue of United States notes and for other purposes, approved July eleven eighteen hundred and sixty two, so far as the maximum of bonds or market value is here by repealed And the notes of United States notes issued under and by virtue of said acts, shall present the same for the purpose of funding, be the same for bonds as therein provided, on or before the first day of July, eighteen hundred and sixty three and thereafter the right to exchange the same shall cease and determine

Sec 4 And be it further enacted, That in lieu of postage and revenue stamps for fractional currency, and of fractional notes commonly called postage currency, issued or to be issued, the secretary of the Treasury may issue fractional notes of lawful money in such form as may deem expedient, and may provide for the supply, preparation and issue thereof in the Treasury Department building And all such notes so issued shall be exchangeable by the Assistant Treasurers and designated depositaries for United States notes in sums less than three dollars, and shall be receivable for postage and revenue stamps and also in payment of any dues to the United States less than five dollars, except duties on imports, and shall be redeemable on presentation at the Treasury of the United States in such sums and under such regulations as the secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe Provided That the whole amount of fractional currency issued, including postage and revenue stamps issued to their day, shall not exceed fifty millions of dollars

Sec 5 And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to receive deposits of gold coin and bullion with the Treasurer of the United States, in sums not less than twenty dollars and to issue certificates therefor in denominations of not less than twenty dollars each corresponding with the denominations of the United states notes. The gold and bullion deposited for or representing the certificates of deposit shall be retained in the Treasury for the payment of the same on demand And certificates representing coin in the Treasury may be issued in payment of interest on the public debt, which certificates, together with those issued for coin and bullion deposited, shall not at any time exceed twenty per centum beyond the amount of coin and bullion in the Treasury, and the certificates for coin or bullion in the treasury shall be received at par in payment for duties on imports

Sec 6 And be it further enacted, That the coupon or registered bonds, treasury notes and United States notes authorized by this act shall be in such form as the Secretary of the treasury may direct, and shall have printed upon them such statements, showing the amount of accrued or accruing interest the character of the notes and the penalties or punishment for altering or counterfeiting them, as the secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, and shall be signed or written or engraved signatures of the Treasurer of the United States and the Register of the Treasury, and also an evidence of legal issue thereupon of the copy of the seal of the Treasury Department which is hereinbefore shall be made, under the direction of the secretary, after the said notes or bonds shall be received from the engravers and before they are issued, of the said notes and bonds, shall be signed by the Treasurer of the United States, or for the Treasurer by such persons as may be specially appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury for the purpose, and shall be countersigned by the Register of the Treasury, or for the register by such persons as the Secretary of the Treasury may specially appoint for that purpose And all the provisions of the act entitled An act to authorize the issue of treasury note approved twenty third day of December, eighteen hundred and fifty seven, so far as they can be applied to this act, and not inconsistent therewith, are hereby revived and re enacted

Sec 7 And be it further enacted, That all banks, associations, corporations, or individuals, issuing notes or bills for circulation as currency, shall be subject to and pay a duty of one per centum each half year from and after April first, eighteen hundred and sixty three, upon the average amount of circulation of notes or bills as currency issued beyond the amount herein after named—that is to say, banks, associations, corporations or individuals having a capital of not over one hundred thousand dollars, ninety per centum thereof, over one hundred thousand and not over two hundred thousand dollars, eighty per centum thereof, over two hundred thousand and not over three hundred thousand dollars, 70 per centum thereof, over three hundred thousand and not over five hundred thousand dollars, sixty per centum thereof, over five hundred thousand and not over one million of dollars, fifty per centum thereof, over one million and not over one million and a half of dollars, forty per centum thereof, over one million and a half and not over two millions of dollars, thirty per centum thereof, over two millions of dollars, twenty five per centum thereof. So that each of said banks, associations, or individuals shall be in addition to the duty herein provided, pay a tax upon the aggregate circulation of all and the amount of capital of such branch shall be considered to be the sum allocated to or used by such branch, and all such banks, associations, corporations and individuals shall also pay a tax of two and one half per centum each half year from and after April first, eighteen hundred and sixty three, upon the average amount of notes of other persons than banks, issued and outstanding as currently during the six months next preceding the return hereinafter provided for, and the rates of duty imposed on the circulation of such notes which shall be organized under the act to provide a national currency, secured by a pledge of United States stocks, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof, approved February twenty fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty three, shall be the same as shall hereby imposed on the circulation and deposits of all banks, associations, corporations, and individuals issuing or receiving notes or bills for circulation as currency after April first, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, in sums representing any fractional part of a dollar, shall be subject to and pay a duty of five per centum each half year thereafter upon the amount of such fractional notes or bills issued And all banks associations, corporations and individuals receiving deposits or money subject to payment on check or draft, except savings institutions, shall be subject to a duty of one-eighth of one per centum each half year from and after April first, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, upon the average amount of their circulating notes or bills lawfully issued and not circulating as currency And a tax of one-eighth shall be made and rendered within thirty days after the first day of October, eighteen hundred and sixty three, and each six months thereafter to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue which shall contain a true and faithful account of the amount of their national note circulation and on the average amount of all other circulation and of all such deposits for the six months next preceding And there shall be annexed to every such return a declaration, under oath or affirmation, to be made in any form and manner as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, of the president, or some other proper officer of said bank, association, corporation, or individual, respectively, that the same contains a true and complete account of the duties which have accrued, or which should accrue, and not accounted for, or any default in the delivery of notes, or payment, with such declaration annexed, the bank, association, corporation, or individual making such default shall forfeit, as a penalty, the sum of five hundred dollars And such bank, association or corporation, or individual shall, upon refusing to make such return as aforesaid, pay to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue the amount of the tax shall then be due, and for failing to obtain the oath of affirmation, as aforesaid, the sum of five hundred dollars, and in case of neglect or refusal to make such list or return as aforesaid, or to pay the duties as aforesaid, for the space of ten days after the time when said list should have been made or rendered, or when said taxes shall have become due and payable, the assessment and collection shall be made according to the general provisions prescribed in cases not omitted An act to provide internal revenue to support the Government and to pay interest on the public debt," approved July one, eighteen hundred and sixty-two

Sec 8 And be it further enacted, That in order to prevent and punish counterfeiting and fraudulent alterations of the notes, notes, and fractional currency authorized to be issued by this act, all the provisions of the six and seventh sections of the act which entitled An act to authorize the issue of United States notes and for other purposes approved February twenty five, eighteen hundred and sixty two, shall be for as applicable, apply to the bonds, notes, and fractional currency hereby authorized, to the same extent as if the said third and seventh sections were hereby adopted as additional sections to the said act, and the provisions and penalties of said sixth and seventh sections were hereby adopted and made applicable to the notes of this act And the provisions and penalties of said sixth and seventh sections shall extend and apply to all the notes and instruments, of the first class, or in any paper such as that act authorized to be issued, for the fractional notes prepared, or to be prepared, in the Treasury Department building, and to all officials of the treasury department engaged in engraving and preparing the said notes, and fractional currency so authorized to be issued, and to all officers and other persons in any manner employed under the provisions of this act And the sum of six hundred thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of the money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the secretary of the Treasury to carry into effect this act

COUGH

BASES its real claims to the confidence of the public by its perfect simplicity, and freedom from every component which in any way places restraint on its use, Day or Night, by Old or Young, but to find the real secret of its true character and results, to which thousands can testify, by its being made the Potent Relief or Speedy Conquer of all, and the enemy to all Forced and Long complaints, by using it every hour, if necessary, or when there is the least tickling in the Throat or disposition to Cough By such freedom of use it

CURES

Coughs,
Colds,
Sore Throat,
Bronchial Complaints,
Hoarseness

and all such as when neglected, end in

CONSUMPTION!

To Public Speakers and Singers it is most valuable, as it goes to the foundation of sore throat, and prevents the preparation which follows great exertion

As a Soothing Syrup its simplicity calls for special attention as the most delicate infant may take it with the greatest freedom

HUNNEWELL'S

This Valuable and Simple PILL rests for character on being the true type of a CATHARTIC—simple, though thorough in action seldom requiring but a single pill for a dose, or one at night and one at morning—acts without the least griping,

AND CURES

Dyspepsia,
Indigestion,
Biliousness,
Loss of Appetite,
Jaundice,
Humors, &c., &c

For HEADACHE, when caused by a foul Stomach, they are a perfect relief

For WORMS are a perfect remedy.

As a FAMILY PILL they have no superior

General Orders No 105

The organization of an Invalid Corps is hereby authorized

The Corps shall consist of 4 companies and it is thought not to be thought best of more than

The Companies shall be made up from the following sources, viz

First By taking those officers and enlisted men of companies above the Rank (whether actually present or temporarily absent) who from wounds received in action or disease contracted in the line of duty, are unfit for field service, but are still competent to perform duty of such other light duty as may be required of an Invalid corps—Regiments Commanders shall at once make out, from information received from their Medical and company officers and from their own knowledge, rolls (according to the form furnished) of the names of all the officers and enlisted men under their commands who fulfill the following conditions, viz

1 That they are unfit for active field service on account of wounds or disease contracted in the line of duty this fact being certified by a Medical officer in the service, after personal examination

2 That they are fit for garrison duty, this fact being likewise certified by the Medical Officer, as above, or personal examination

3 That they are, in the opinion of their Commanding Officers, meritorious and deserving

These rolls shall be certified by the examining Surgeon and Regimental Commander and transmitted, through the regular channels of military correspondence, to the Provost Marshal General of the United States.

The Regimental Commander shall enter in the column of remarks, opposite each officer's name on the roll, a statement as to the general character of the officer for intelligence, industry, sobriety and attention to duty, and all intermediate Commanders shall similarly endorse upon such lists as they may possess in the office or if they have none they shall state how far they are willing to endorse the opinion of the officer or officers making the recommendation Similar rolls shall be forwarded from time to time whenever the number of men fulfilling the conditions enumerated for the exigencies of the service may render it expedient

Second By taking those officers and enlisted men still in service and scattered on the rolls, but who are absent from duty in Hospitals or Convalescent Camps of a nature wise under the control of Medical Officers In these cases the Medical Officer in attendance shall prepare the rolls according to form, giving the names of officers and men from the same Regiment on a roll by themselves and send these with the certificate of the surgeon verified, to the proper Regimental Commander, who will forward them, as heretofore specified, subject to the same conditions and requirements. If, in any case, the Regimental Commander shall think an officer unfit, in point of character, to continue in the service of the Invalid Corps, though detached and serviceable in the branch, he will note his objection in the column of remarks, and note the exception before signing the certificate If any officer or enlisted man now in the service, but absent and beyond the reach of a Medical Officer in charge of a Hospital or Convalescent Camp desires to enter the Corps, he will send the request to the Provost Marshal General of the State Non appointment of this kind will be considered unless the following conditions are completely fulfilled

1 That the applicant produce the certificate of the surgeon of the board of Enrollment for the district in which he resides, that he is unfit for active field duty on account of wounds or disease and is not liable to draft, but is fit for garrison duty

2 That he furnish evidence or honorable discharge on account of wounds or disability contracted in the line of duty.

3 That he produce recommendations from the Regimental, Brigade, and Division commanders under whom he formerly served, that he is worthy of being thus provided for and capable of returning adequate service for the compensation, which it cannot be impracticable to get this last evidence, he may, having established the first two points above, satisfy the board of enrollment that he is disabled, and it seems to be probable for the last time

Lastly By accepting these officers and enlisted men who have been honorably discharged on account of wounds or disease contracted in the line of duty, and who desire to re-enter the service In the case of an officer, application for appointment must be made to the Provost marshal General of the United States through the officer detailed as acting Assistant Provost Marshal general of the State No application of this kind will be considered unless the following conditions are completely fulfilled

1 That the applicant produce the certificate of the surgeon of the board of Enrollment for the district in which he resides, that he is unfit for active field duty on account of wounds or disease and is not liable to draft, but is fit for garrison duty

2 That he furnish evidence or honorable discharge on account of wounds or disability contracted in the line of duty.

3 That he produce recommendations from the Regimental, Brigade, and Division commanders under whom he formerly served, that he is worthy of being thus provided for and capable of returning adequate service for the compensation, which it cannot be impracticable to get this last evidence, he may, having established the first two points above, satisfy the board of enrollment that he is disabled, and it seems to be probable for the last time

Lastly Enlisted men will be examined by the medical board, and if found to be disabled, shall be forwarded with the rolls of their companies to the Provost Marshal General of the State, who will forward them to the Adjutant General of the state, who is desired to endorse thereon such note in the military history of the applicant as he may know, or as are offered by his friends and forward the same to the Provost Marshal General of the United States

Enlisted men, honorably discharged on account of disability, desiring to re enlist in the Corps, will present themselves to the board of enrollment for the District of Maine, in which they reside, for examination by the surgeon thereof, who shall examine them and report the result to the board of Enrollment

The Board shall then consider each case, and if the applicant is found to fulfill the conditions specified below the Board shall give him a certificate to that effect, viz

1 That he is unfit for service in the field.

2 That he is fit for garrison duty

3 That he is meritorious and deserving

4 That he was honorably discharged from the service.

The Provost Marshal for the District shall then send the list, together with this certificate of the board, to the Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General of the State, who shall procure such evidence of service and character as the records of the company to which he belonged, on file at the headquarters of the State, may have, and if satisfied that he is a meritorious man and that the fact is deserving, he will enlist him in accordance with such special rules as the Provost Marshal General may establish

Medical Surgeons, Surgeons in charge of Hospitals, military Commanders, and all others having authority to discharge, under existing laws and regulations, are prohibited to grant discharges to any men under their control who may be fit for service in the Invalid Corps.

The Provost Marshal General is charged with the execution of this order, and the troops organized under it will be under the control of his Bureau.

By order of the Secretary of War,

E D TOWNSEND,
Assistant adjutant General.
